

PROGRAMME FOR THE MONITORING AND EVALUATION PRACTITIONERS

PURPOSE

The programme is intended for M&E practitioners to apply monitoring and evaluation principles in the Public Sector in assessing organisations and/or programme performance in a specific context.

TARGET GROUP

- M&E Practitioners
- M&E Managers

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR ENROLMENT

It is assumed that learners are competent in:

- Communication (in English) at NQF Level 4 and
- Mathematical Literacy at NQF Level 4.

ACCREDITATION

The course is non-credit bearing. After successful completion of the summative assessment, the learner will receive a Certificate of Successful Completion.

Unit Standard ID	Title	NQF Level	Credits
337063	Demonstrate knowledge and insight into the principles of monitoring and evaluation in assessing organisation and/or programme performance in a specific context	5	5
337059	Apply monitoring and evaluation approaches and tools to assess an organisation or programme performance in a specific context	6	15

ASSESSMENT

If you successfully complete the assessments, you will receive 5 credits against the unit standard “Demonstrate knowledge and insight into the principles of monitoring and evaluation in assessing organisation and/or programme performance in a specific context” (US ID 337063), at NQF level 5.

In addition, you will receive 15 credits against the unit standard “Apply monitoring and evaluation approaches and tools to assess an organisation’s or programme’s performance in a specific context” (US ID 337059), at NQF level 6.

You are expected to produce evidence in the form of a portfolio of evidence (PoE) to meet the required standard as agreed between the assessor and yourself. National School of Government’s policies and procedures with regard to assessment, moderation, recognition of prior learning and appeals, govern this assessment.

- I. Formative assessment: There are pre-attendance reading activities and other activities in each course or module. These will help with the assignment at the end of each course or module.
- II. Summative assessment: There is an assignment after each course or module. You will be required to complete an integrated final assignment in the form of a PoE (based on the post-course/module assignments) and do a presentation based on the integrated final assignment (PoE).

DURATION

This course is presented over (19) working days.
